PETER SIEMS DIES SUDDENLY; BUILT NORTHERN PACIFIC

DAYTONA SUFFERS ANOTHER SHOCK

Peter Siems, one of the greatest railroad builders of the past generation and one of Daytona's best known and wealthiest winter visitors, died this afternoon, shortly after 2:00 o'clock, at his palatial home on South Beach street from heart failure.

Mr. Siems was attended during the last moments of his life by Dr. G. A. Klock, a local physician.

Mr. Siems' death comes as a shock to practically every one who has been a resident of Daytona.

Mr. Siems was at one time the principal contractor for James J. Hill, the founder of the Northern Pacific railway. When in a reminiscent mood Mr. Siems would talk of the time when he commenced out in the west in the railroad contracting business with one team, which he drove himself. It is stated authentically that he built more miles of railroad than any other man—being quite a factor in the construction of such well known systems as the Northern Pacific and the Canadian Pacific.

Mr. Siems' home is in St. Paul, Minnesota, but he has been coming to Daytona for at least 18 years.

Mr. Siems was born in Schleswig Holstein, Denmark, 75 years ago and leaves to mourn his death his wife, Josephine, and three sons, Claude, Chester and Alton Siems.

It is known that Mr. Siems was worth many millions of dollars, but he has not taken any active interest in business for many years.

The remains of the deceased have been turned over to the Bingham & Maley company, but up to the time of going to press no definite arrangements had been made.

WILSON NOT TO CAUSE WAR UNLESS CONGRESS IS CALLED TO MEET

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The president has no intention of taking action that will bring on war unless Congress is summoned in extra session. This was communicated to the Senate leaders. The president believes that if no extraordinary crisis arises it will not be necessary to call an extra session before late in the spring.

An extra session will be called then only to pass the appropriation bills which may fail at the present session. The president is making continued efforts to persuade Republican senators to assist in the passage of needed appropriation bills.

THIRD CAMPFIRE PLANNED FOR NEXT WEEK SATURDAY

A third and final G. A. R. Campfire, the best and largest of all will be held next Saturday morning in Casino Burgoine. The preliminary committee met this morning and outlined all plans for their preparatory work during the coming week. The hour has been set at 10:00 as in the former campfires.

Bone Dry Measure Signed by President Wilson and is Immediately Effective

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Wilson today signed the postal bill with the "bone dry" provision.

Though the appropriations in the postoffice bill are for the fiscal year beginning July 1, the "bone dry" amendment is effective when the president signs the measure.

Besides the prohibition of liquor shipments, the amendment bars from the mail newspaper and other publications containing liquor advertisements when such publications are to be sent into states which prohibit publication and circulation of these advertisements.

This bill immediately goes into effect and makes 24 of the 48 states not only bone dry, but as dry as a powder magazine as far as the law is concerned. Florida is not affected.

SENATE NOT VOTE ON AUTHORITY ACT BEFORE SUN. NOON

H. C. CANTWELL IS GREETING FRIENDS IN THIS CITY TODAY

WASHINGTON, March 3.—At the resumption of the Senate's consideration of the armed neutrality bill this morning Senator Stone announced that he would continue to fight for his amendment to withhold protection from munition-carrying ships.

Senator La Follette is ready to make a long speech against the bill. Administration leaders feared that this opposition to the bill might prevent its enactment by noon tomorrow.

WAR SUMMARY

Berlin announces that there have been violent infantry engagements on both banks of the Aire river in northern France, the British suffering losses of 80 prisoners. It is also announced that the Germans extensively raided the Russian trenches west of Latsk in Volhynia.

Nine armed Russian steamers were destroyed by a German submarine which was later sunk near Hammerfest, according to the Overseas News Agency.

Raiding operations continue on the Verdun front.

A 240-foot boat was the prize specimen of Oswald Taepke's catch at the Seaside Inn yesterday.

In the party of Seaside Inn guests who enjoyed the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Taepke, Mrs. Edward Molitor and George Ulrich. Other members of the party also returned with creditable catches.

After a several weeks' sojourn in Miami's hotel, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Moore left yesterday for their home in New York City. While in Daytona the Moores were among the most popular members of the hotel colony and will be greatly missed from the resort pleasures. Mr. Moore is associated with the freight department of the Hudson Navigation company and returns north for business reasons.

SECRETARY ZIMMERMANN ADMITS THAT GERMANY SOUGHT 'MEX' ALLIANCE

EXTRA SESSION IS PROBABLE BEFORE ADVENT OF SUMMER

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Leader Mann in a speech asserted that an extra session before the summer is probable as the Senate is unlikely to pass the army, sundry, civil, military academy and general deficiency appropriation bills. Republican senators are determined to hold up legislation.

GERMAN MONEY SEIZED AT BUENOS AIRES

BUENOS AIRES, March 3.—The port authorities here today boarded the Dutch steamer Amstelrand and seized a bag containing 1,500,000 marks and addressed to the German Trans-Atlantic banks branches in Buenos Aires, Santiago and Montevideo. The authorities also confiscated a large quantity of un stamped German mail.

The Dutch Lloyd line, owners of the steamer, gave orders for the holding of the steamer and the dismissal of her captain.

TWO OATHS WILL BE TAKEN BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Wilson will take oath in his room at the capitol at noon Sunday. He will take it again Monday in front of the capitol before his inaugural address.

After a several weeks' sojourn in Miami's hotel, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Moore left yesterday for their home in New York City. While in Daytona the Moores were among the most popular members of the hotel colony and will be greatly missed from the resort pleasures. Mr. Moore is associated with the freight department of the Hudson Navigation company and returns north for business reasons.

George W. Coleman, of Boston, who has charge of the great open forum work at Ford Hall, Boston, will speak Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the industrial school for girls, his subject being "Some Colored People I Know." Mrs. H. N. Lathrop will speak on "Social Settlement Work." The very best music is to be rendered. All are welcome.

INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO LOCAL SCHOOL CONDITIONS

Prof. H. Clay Marks, supervising principal of the Daytona public schools, proposes to furnish conditions concerning school conditions in Daytona which should be of much interest to patrons of the public schools and all other persons having at heart the advancement of public school matters.

Appended is a note of explanation from Prof. Marks and the first of the series of reports referred to.
To the People of Daytona:

During all this year I have had in mind the issuing of an Annual Report concerning school conditions in Daytona. The citizens of this community have never had the opportunity of reading such a report. However, it is my belief that the people are entitled to a certain fund of information with respect to the local schools; information which cannot be obtained except through the efforts of the head of the local system. To my regret I find that I must give up the idea of issuing the "First Annual Report of the Daytona Public Schools" in booklet form. This is on account of the expense connected with the issuing of such a publication. But I have not discarded the idea of serving the public in this matter. Through the courtesy of the Daytona newspapers, there will be published from time to time articles, the contents of which will be information in the nature of annual reports. These articles will be signposted the first one appearing in this issue.

It is impossible to make many important deductions from this report,
but lack of space forbids extended comment. Parents should study carefully the reasons assigned above and then do all possible to assist the school authorities in eliminating the sluggishness that are so prevalent.

TARDINESS—Boys—Work and errands, 33; just slow, couldn't get ready, 21; loitering and playing on the way, 18; slow clocks and watches, 18; miscellaneous, 18; bad weather and roads, 16; sickness of self, or in the family, 13; no reason assigned, 8; trains blocking the crossings, 5; over-slept, 4; late meals, 3; bicycle trouble,
2. Total, 159.

nous, 11; transportation troubles, 9; overslept, 8; loitering and playing on the way, 8; no reason assigned, 6;

It is impossible to make many important deductions from this report,
but lack of space forbids extended
comment. Parents should study carefully the reasons assigned above and
then do all possible to assist the
school authorities in eliminating the sluggishness that are so prevalent.

Although the sample of attendance now sent to circuit in this country may not be representative of the record in the Daytona public schools with respect to attendance and punctuality, it is so in many of the rooms, reaching the monthly average of 85 and 86 percent. Yet an example of how this report reveals the fact that there is an opportunity for further improvement.

As a portion of this report it would appear that the best present as well as future record as could be had by the girls. However, the opinion is given by reason of the fact that the number of girls enrolled exceeds the number of boys by about 50.

"MADAME"

IF YOU WANT TO KNOW

the right way to cook rice and the many nutritious, easily-digested, fuel-producing and appetizing dishes that an old Creole Mammy makes with Rice as the important ingredient, you will read this add very attentively and try each of the recipes herein contained.

RICE

should be served dry, steaming hot, not mushy, every grain separate. After you have learned to cook Rice, you will then be able to utilize and serve it in a hundred different ways. Your household will like it and will always want it on the table for dinner, served dry, to be used instead of bread, with all gravies (especially the brown meat gravies), and with beans and peas. In a large measure it will take the place of potatoes. It is so much easier to handle, cleaner, keeps better, quicker to prepare, easier to digest and about four times as nutritious.

PRACTICAL RECEIPE FOR COOKING RICE.

1 cup of rice (well washed), 3 cups boiling water; scant teaspoon of salt, a saltspoon of lard.

Wash rice through at least six waters or until all cloudiness is removed. Drain thoroughly. Bring to the boiling point three brimful cups of water. Add the salt, and the tiny bit of lard. When water is boiling briskly add the rice gradually so as not to stop the boiling. Don't stir. The grains should be kept moving by the boiling water. It will take about fifteen minutes for the rice to fully absorb the water. During this time keep the cover on but slightly pushed to one side. At the end of the fifteen minutes the grains should be soft, not the least gritty. Remove the cover and at the same heat le dry out for five minutes. If cooking on gas stove at the end of the five minutes lower gas and let the drying out process continue for twenty to thirty minutes longer. If cooking on a wood or coke stove, at the end of the five minutes, place cooked rice on back of stove or in oven to dry out.

THE WEATHER

FOR FLORIDA: Unsettled tonight and Sunday with local rains; colder tonight in northwest portion, somewhat colder Sunday in north portion. Moderate shifting winds, becoming northwest over northwest portion.

Unsettled conditions continue over the Gulf states due to a shallow depression near the coast, which, in conjunction with the high to the north, has resulted in quite general rain east of the Plains states; precipitation was heavy in Alabama and Tennessee.

A strong high attended by generally fair and colder weather occupies the northwestern portion of the country, giving zero temperatures to the central Plains states and more than 20 degrees below zero over the northwest. The winds are light to moderate southward over the south Atlantic and east Gulf, and northerly on the west Gulf coast. Local rains are indicated to night and Sunday; colder Sunday.

PENINSULA DEPARTMENT DAILY NEWS THE DAYTONA

FUQUAY AND GREEN'S SHOPS BEING BUILT

The foundation work for the new shops which Fuquay and Green, the well known Daytona Beach contractors and builders, are erecting for their own use, are well under way and will complete by April 1.

These new shops are an addition to their already commodious work buildings. The new structure is a two-story and basement wood-working shop, 45 feet by 120 feet, in which they will carry a full stock of all materials which will enable them to live all the better up to their reputation of quick builders.

Fuquay and Green are among the foremost contractors in this vicinity and have received as many if not more contracts for various kinds of building during the past year, than any other firm. It pleases the most of peninsula people to see this firm grow because it began here and its employes are nearly all residents of the peninsula. The growth of this business has also been more or less responsible for the promotion of the Fuquay sub-division of Daytona Beach which is one of the most attractive residential neighborhoods in this vicinity.

FUQUAY AND GREEN NOW REPAIRING FENTON HOUSE

Fuquay and Green, architects and builders, have started work on extensive additions to the property of Mrs. R. E. Fenton on the ocean front and south Atlantic avenue, Daytona Beach. A large garage and servants' quarters will be erected on the Atlantic avenue end of Mrs. Fenton's property and other improvements will be made.

MARRIED FRIDAY NIGHT AT BAPTIST CHURCH PARSONAGE

Miss Viola Sims and Henry L. Robidere were united in marriage last night at the parsonage of the First Baptist church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Homes S. Rightmire, pastor of the church, in the presence of Miss Mae Lehman and H. C. F. Dohm.

Mr. and Mrs. Robidere will make their home in West Palm Beach, where Mr. Robidere has been stationed as special representative of Armour and company, with which company he has been associated for nearly 20 years.

Both bride and groom are well known here and will have the well wishes of their numerous friends and their future happiness and prosperity.

DAYTONA BEACH

Geo. Nelson and family, who are spending the winter at the Boyd cottage on Hollywood avenue went over to De Leon Springs today on a picnic trip. They will spend the pleasant day at the interior resort and return to the beach late this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Jenkins, of Philadelphia, Pa., accompanied by their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Jenkins of Scranton, Pa., arrived here Friday morning from Orlando and spent the day at the beach. They left in the afternoon on their trip home in their Packard touring car, planning to spend the night in St. Augustine. They made the trip south from Pennsylvania last October in six days but will be more leisurely on their homeward journey.

The many friends of Mrs. J. B. Minnis will be very glad to know that she is much better after her illness of the past two weeks. It is believed that she will soon be able to enjoy the outdoor air again.

U. P. Heming, of Springfield, Mass., is among those to recently arrive at a local hotel for a few weeks in Key West since December 1, and plans to stay here for about two weeks before leaving for the north.

John Miner's many friends are all glad to hear that he is much improved in condition since the first of the week. His fever is much reduced and he will probably be able to leave his bed by the end of another week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lathrop, of Boston, Mass., are now frequent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith G. Young, on Ridgewood avenue.

WORK COMMENCED UPON HANDSOME WINTER HOME

Work has been started on the new residence of Arthur W. Blake, of Boston, Mass., by the general contractors Fuquay & Green, of Daytona Beach, the residence being located on the very desirable lot recently purchased by Mr. Blake on Ridgewood avenue, between Magnolia and Volusia avenues. The house will be of stucco, with red tile roof and will be one of the most elaborate residences on Ridgewood.

Feed O. Gardner, of Providence, R. I., arrived Friday evening and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Edwards and Miss Marguerite Edwards, at 225 Volusia avenue. Mr. Gardner visited Mr. Edwards and family in this city last winter and made many friends at that time who will be pleased to again see him.

EDUCATIONAL FILM OF INTEREST TO THE AUTOMOBILE WORLD

Remember the first motion pictures you ever saw? Remember when Henry Walhall, Mary Pickford, Blanche Sweet, the Moore boys and the Gish girls were all appearing in spherical introductions with the same company? Well, the Remper & Williams company does. Although they are mighty bus selling cars, they occasionally find time for the movies.

"It was not so long ago," said Mr. Remmer, "that we paid real money—twenty five cents—to see the pictures of a train coming into a station, the launching of a ship, the interior of a carpenter shop and some girls skipping a rope."

"Since that day the motion pictures has developed into perhaps the greatest medium for amusement, entertainment and education the world has ever known. I have been fortunate in securing for motion car owners of Daytona over 2,000 feet of the best motion pictures ever made showing the Knight Sweep Valve motion in actual operation. These marvelous motion pictures will be shown Monday March 5th at the Crystal Theatre. They show why an American invention revolutionized the European motor car industry and holds ready in world record for efficiency and consistent performance."

WORKMEN COMPLETING NEW BURGOYNE PARK

DAYTONA'S DEBT OF GRATITUDE TO MRS. C. G. BURGOYNE IS AGAIN INCREASED BY GIFT OF BEAUTIFUL FOUNTAIN.

Workmen are now engaged in the completion of Burgoyne Park, the name that has been given to the spacious area way just east of Burgoyne casting.

This plot of ground was recently formed by the suction dredge which carried the material from the Halifax River Yacht club channel. It is a great improvement to the casting and will be a place of beauty when it is finished. A cement wall has been built around the edge of the park and shrubs, flowers and grass will be planted in the ground inside this promenade. In the center of the east part of the walk, "Burgoyne Park" has been outlined in large block letters.

Two clusters of lights similar to those along the Burgoyne Esplanade will be placed in the park, in the exact center of which is a beautiful electric fountain, a new gift of Mrs. Burgoyne to the community. This fountain is composed of several cherubs in various attitudes and is indeed a thing of beauty. For all these improvements the public is indebted to the generosity of Mrs. Burgoyne.

This small but very attractive new park will make the view from the east porch of the casting much finer. At present scores fill the chairs of the porch on the pleasant mornings and afternoons, enjoying the scene of the peaceful river with the low-lying peninsula opposite.

CORYDON O. CHAMBERLIN.

"A Greater Love Than This, No Man Hath."

Corydon O. Chamberlin was born at Winhall, in the state of Vermont, on the 15th day of September, 1848. He passed out of this life in this city on March 2, 1917. It is a matter of small importance as to the date of birth and death of an individual. It is, however, a matter of great importance as to how the life record has been kept between those two events. Whether or not the bar sinister has fallen upon his escutcheon, or whether or not it has been kept without reproach by the man who passes from life into death, it can be said of him that in all the years of his earthly pilgrimage he has fought the good fight and kept the faith—sans peur et sans reproche without fear and without reproach. Few men have so lived their individual lives that when they come to lie down to pleasant dreams from which there is no awakening, can be said of them that in all things they lived as to merit and receive the hearty and earnest approval of their fellow men. For upward of 20 years I knew Mr. Chamberlin and for all that period I had his friendship, a friendship without an iota of jealousy, or personal advantage. It was sincere, it was earnest, it was steadfast. If it there was no shadow of taint, no shade of doubtful scruple, even as the sun.

And, knowing him as I did, I can bear that cheerful testimony that in all the years of his life the record that he wrought was without censur or blemish. He was a man of rare temperament, equable, just, patient, making allowances for the frailties of men without scorning their faults. He was neither critical or cynical, he did not condemn where condemnation would have been useless, but out of the goodness of his great heart whose kindness was like the afterglow of a summer's day, he spoke in comforting tones to the one who had erred or was nearly disappointed to the expression: "A lousy man" than any one I have ever known. Considerate of others, frank, open, ready to instruct those who were in doubt, made him approach the ideal man. I would be loath to his memory and regret to myself did I not pay this tribute to my friend. A devoted old brother, an unselfish friend, a kind citizen, a gentle kindly soul—such may God grant to him when of this world.

DINNER AND CARDS FOR MR. AND MRS. G. R. BOYCE

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. George R. Boyce, of East Orange, N. J., who have been their house guests for several weeks past, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Vincent, of Pleasandale, N. J., whose winter home is located on Loomis avenue, entertained Friday evening at a dinner party followed by cards. Beautiful spring flowers were used for floral decoration, making the scene more charming. There were four tables of cards occupied by enthusiasts.

tic players following the dinner, and high scores were attained by Messes Neff and Lyon, to whom many beautiful prizes were awarded.

The Vincents are always delightful entertainers and Friday evening's event was no exception, and Mr. and Mrs. Boyce who depart for the north on Sunday, leave with pleasant memories of a very delightful evening.

Singular attractions have been offered for the amusement of those who will attend the Vaudeville Tea which will be given at the Palmetto Club house on Monday afternoon. One among them will be the strange, wild animal which will be shown. This member of the animal kingdom has been exhibited in places outside of Florida, but has never been seen within the land of sunshine before. Scenarios from the far east and west will delve into the future for those who so desire calling forth many interesting bits of prophecy for their clients.

A trio of interesting Canadians who are guests at the Seaside Inn for a week's stay include Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tudhope and Miss Tudhope, of Toronto.

Paul M. Maxwell, of New York City, a late guest at the Seaside Inn, is an enthusiastic golfer and will spend much of his time on the Clarendon and Ormond links.

On their initial visit to Seabreeze, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sweat, of Attleboro, Mass., are delighted with their attractive surroundings and will spend several weeks at the Princess Isenna.

Motorists at the Ridgewood on Friday who came up from Ft. Pierce to enjoy the sights and attractions of Daytona were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Eisner, G. F. Langenbacher and Charles Lord, all of New York.

Week end guests at the Prince George hotel are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Murphy and Miss Murphy, of Philadelphia, Pa. Having visited the majority of the coast resorts, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy think Daytona the prettiest place in Florida.

Prior to their departure for Jacksonville yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. C. Pieper, Mrs. J. D. Pierson, C. A. Pieper and William Pieper, of Gretchen, Mass., and P. James, of Bathgate, N.Y., enjoyed a farewell dinner party at the Schmidt's hotel. The group have enjoyed a delightful stay in Daytona in a Ridgewood avenue cottage.

Left yesterday for Cleveland, Ohio, were Mr. and Mrs. J. Richman, Mrs. C. L. Newell and Mrs. H. Lindsey, who have been guests at Schmidt's hotel since January. During their stay in Daytona the four enjoyed a continual round of motor trips, fishing and picnics parties.

A 26-pound bass was the prize specimen of Oswald Tscheller's catch at the Hotel Wadsworth. In the party of Seaside Inn guests who enjoyed the trip were Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Johnson, of Milwaukee; Mrs. J. T. Hart, Atlantic water and winter residents of Ireland. The party having made a tour of Daytona in the morning.

Mr. K. W. Bishop, of Springfield, Mass., who is a guest at the Despland, entered a party of friends at the hotel on Friday which included M. H. Johnson, Mrs. N. L. Chapman, of Milwaukee; Mrs. J. T. Hart, Atlantic water and winter residents of Ireland. The party having made a tour of Daytona in the morning.

We hope to offer you the best. Mrs. P. H. Hubbard and Miss F. Hubbard of New York have made a short visit to Daytona. George, 3000. When we last saw them they were here on January 1st. We think it charming and pleasant after a long winter in Europe. We are now bound for Daytona this weekend. We are going to return next week for several weeks.

Condolent words from Mr. and Mrs. Von Schröder, who have a desirable suite at the Prince George, pay due to their many belongings. The Von Schröders have spent the majority of the years in Florida at various seasons, and find their surroundings there a delightful change.

The latest in news is that Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moore, of New York, have recently come to Daytona to spend the month of March at Schmidt's hotel. During their stay here they will make a tour of the city without giving by this or other means any information what they are doing. As a general rule, however, they usually frequent the dining establishment at the hotel.

After a three week's absence Mr. and Mrs. William F. Meister and son, M. C. Gravé, of Toledo, Ohio, have arranged to return to spend the month of March at Schmidt's hotel. During their stay here they will make a tour of the city without giving by this or other means any information what they are doing. CLARENDON IDEAL HONEYMOON SPOT DURING THE WINTER

Seabreeze is the ideal place to spend a honeymoon. So think Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Eldridge, guests at the Clarendon, who left yesterday for Grove Park Inn, Asheville, N. C. Mr. Eldridge is a nephew of Mrs. E. C. Atwood, who with Dr. Atwood, was among the pioneer settlers of Daytona. En route to Miami the Eldridges spent fortnight at the Clarendon, and found their surroundings so charming that they returned for another visit on their way to North Carolina. While in Miami they made an automobile tour through the Everglades. Mr. Eldridge is prominent in financial circles of Boston, Mass., where he is associated with Hornblower & Weeks, one of the leading brokerage firms of that city. Prior to her marriage during the early part of January Mrs. Eldridge was one of the most charming of the Washington society girls.

An informal luncheon party in the Lotus grill Thursday was composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. Raines Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James G. Comerford and John G. Ebbs, of Rochester, N. Y.

The Johnny Jones carnival provided amusement for Mr. and Mrs. Louis DeWitt Compson, Mrs. Frank Horton, Mrs. Adolf Knecken, Miss Annette Taussig, Miss Esther Hubbell, Joseph Diebolt, Fred Ward, W. A. Nelson and George F. Burkhardt, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Compson went back to little girl days when she won a perfectly enormous and altogether adorable rag doll.

"Seabreeze is much more attractive than the resorts further south. We're coming next year and bring a house party of 20 with us," were H. L. Brooks' parting words, when, with Mrs. Brooks and little Miss Brooks, he left for the north. After visiting Miami and Padre Beach the Brooks stopped at the Clarendon en route home and thought the resort the most attractive resort on the east coast.

John McKay, of Kingston, Conn., who has had one of the Clarendon cottages for the past week, has moved to the hotel where he will spend the month of March.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grinnell, guests at the Clarendon, entertained Miss Hazel Candlish, of Chicago, and Miss Hazel Grinnell, of Detroit, at luncheon Thursday.

A short stay guest at the Clarendon is Charles A. Potter, of Providence, R. I., who is touring the coast resorts.

Leroy Soher, of New York City, and William Knight, Jr., of New Rochelle, N. Y., popular members of the bachelor contingent at the Clarendon, will leave today for Jacksonville, making the trip in Mr. Soher's car. From Jacksonville they will go to Waycross, Ga., and before returning north will tour the southern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKeel, Mr. and Mrs. Louis DeWitt Compson and Alex Under McDonald, will motor to DeLand today to watch play in the tournament now in progress on the College Arms links, roundabouting for luncheon at the College Arms. After luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Compson will motor to Glenwood to visit friends.

AUTOS MUST HAVE COUNTY LICENSE TO OPERATE HERE

Visitors and residents to Daytona and vicinity who have not paid license should do so at once as Sheriff Lee Morris, of Volusia county, has issued a statement that he will start a vigorous campaign for the collection of license fees.

This applies alike to automobiles, hotels and business houses. Starting Monday, deputies will be in Daytona to arrest all persons operating without a license or who have failed to apply for a license.

All automobiles operating in the state should have a county license. The fee is $3 for a two-passenger runabout, $5 for a five-passenger touring car and $10 for seven-passenger cars. This applies to private cars. Machines operating for hire are required to pay $3 per seat, per person.

The sheriff is acting on instructions from the county commissioners. The license fee applies to tourists as well as residents. All automobiles, whether they come from New York, Oshkosh or Kalamazoo, must bear a license from some county in Florida to use the highways of Volusia county without danger of arrest.

Application for license may be made in person or by writing to the county collector of Volusia county at DeLand, the larger publishers release up to

W. H. PETTIBONE IS ENJOYING DAYTONA

A distinguished visitor to Daytona for a several days' stay is W. H. Pettibone, of Detroit, who is pleasantly located at the Williams hotel where Mrs. Pettibone is spending the winter.

Mr. Pettibone is a prominent newspaper man of Detroit where he is business manager of the "Detroit Free Press," a newspaper of distinction which is undoubtedly one of the most powerful and influential publications in the middle west, enjoying undisputed prestige in its own territory.

This is Mr. Pettibone's first visit to Daytona and when asked what his impressions were of the "Frostless Winter Resort," he said, "I think Daytona is mighty fine. I like it immensely, and probably never would have come if it hadn't been for the fact that I was in Washington in attendance at the Federal Trade commission which convened for the purpose of discussing the vital shortage of paper, which the United States is experiencing at present. The chief object," said Mr. Pettibone, "was to see if the commission would allow publishers and manufacturers the right to fix a price on the product. To arbitrate the matter, the commission consented to leave it with a committee appointed by congress. It was also decided by the commission that five per cent of their contracts for paper for distribution among the smaller publishers, thereby giving the newspapers which consume a much smaller amount of paper a chance to live."

Mr. Pettibone will enjoy Daytona by taking motor trips, visiting the orange groves and enjoying a dip in the sea, the last pleasure of which is very attractive to people coming from the middle west. He will probably leave for home on Tuesday or Wednesday, the press of business calling him away much sooner than he would otherwise leave.

ROADSTER WANTED—I want a high class roadster. Will exchange high class Daytona land, 20 acres, 2½ miles from Daytona, for auto to me; I will describe land, or call on me. G. M. Randall, M. D., St. Petersburg, Fla. 68-121.

JUBILEE CONCERT BY PUPILS OF THE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL
On Monday evening, March 5th, the annual entertainment to be given by the pupils of the Daytona Industrial School for Negro Girls will be of especial interest, as the program includes scenes from a play written by one of the teachers. This is called "The Black Hope," and depicts the upturning influence of industrial training in the life of a little colored girl, how she dedicates herself to helping her humble people, ministering to their needs and thus develops her own character.

This institution, situated in the western section of the city, has grown from a little cottage school into one where there are more than 100 girls. Here they are taught all branches of housework, sewing, gardening, etc., along with the three R's. If they continue their course of instruction they must select an especial trade or vocation and other studies are arranged to accord with this choice. This is no longer merely a school, but is actually a community or settlement center. A few of the activities are a Sunday school, which includes a large temperance union, a Boys' club, a Married People's council, Mission work at the lumber camps and prison stockades, and most appealing of all, a hospital of 18 beds where any suffering negro may find shelter and care. The negroes pay a portion of the expenses, but for its general maintenance and for the carrying out of the present methods of industrial training this institution depends upon its philanthropic public whose generosity has aided it to grow and develop. Those who give may feel assured that the property is securely held by a board of trustees. There is also an advisory board of women who try conscientiously to fulfill their duties to the public by watching the expenditures and assisting the principal and founder of the school, Mary McLeod Bethune, with advice and guidance.
